HIGH WATER AND BAD WEATHER CAUSES SUSPENSION AT LOCK

Work of Construction Stopped Until Spring--Coffer Dam Flooded

ORDERS ARE JUST RECEIVED

Discontinue at Once. Word is in Effect—Splendid Progress Made Until December When Floods Became Altogether Too Frequent.

Because of unsettled weather conditions and the frequency of floods work of construction of the new inner lock at Lock No. 4 has been ordered peremptorily stopped, not to be started again until open weather prevails. The suspension comes with the coffer dam built and several piles driven into the bottom and with the coffer dam filled with water.

During the last month the new lock has been flooded four times, meaning a discontinuance of operations and considerable expense each time in pumping the immense volume of water from the coffer dam. This led to the order which is of recent date.

Until the high water of December came, splendid progress was being made on the construction. The river remained nearly all spring, summer and fall of 1915 at a good stage permitting new work to be continued uninterruptedly.

Probably not until April will construction work be resumed. Then in good weather conditions prevail it should take no longer than nine months to complete the work. U. Boyd Brumbaugh is the overseer of construction work and E. C. Ashcraft the engineer in charge. By the order to suspend about 150 men have been temporarily thrown out of work.

MARIANNA MINE TO RESUME OPERATIONS COMING WEEK

General Manager Booker Makes Definite Announcement—Will Employ From 300 to 400 Men at Outset.

With prospects for an indefinite run the Marianna mine, repaired and in good condition, will resume operations next Monday, employing from 300 to 400 men. This is the tenor of the announcement made by General Manager Harris Booker.

The mine will be operated by the Union Coal and Coke company of Pittsburgh. This mine was purchased by this company last July from the Pittsburgh-Buffalo Coal company, which went into bankruptcy about two years ago. In the failure of the Pittsburgh-Buffalo company, the Marianna mine, which was one of its most valuable holdings, was shut down and since that time had been idle. The mine was opened in 1908 and with only a short exception at the time of the mine explosion, several years ago, continued operations without a letup until two years ago.

WOMAN HELD FOR KILLING HUSBAND

Mrs. William Roupe in Washington Jail Charged With Crime

CORONER HAS A BUSY DAY

The coroner's jury inquiring into the circumstances surrounding the death of William L. Roupe, whose death occurred in the City hospital at Washington Wednesday morning, as a result of a gunshot wound inflicted at his home shortly after midnight on the morning of December 31, 1915, brought in a verdict Thursday in which it recommended that Lillian Roupe, his wife, be held to await the action of the grand jury.

The testimony given by Dr. J. R. Maxwell, who was called to the Roupe home on Charles street, Canton township, soon after the shooting occurred, was most damaging to Mrs. Roupe, who has since been held in jail pending the result of the inquest.

Dr. Maxwell testified that when he reached the Roupe home he found Mr. Roupe in serious condition from a wound inflicted by a revolver. He inquired of the injured man who did the shooting and he promptly replied, "She shot me," pointing to his wife.

Attorney James A. Magill, counsel for Mrs. Roupe, who since the shooting of her husband has been in jail, visited the woman breaking to her the sad intelligence that her husband was dead. Mrs. Roupe almost collapsed, but managed to brace up and talk intelligently, though it was evident she was laboring under the deep-

ADDITION TO COUNTY HOME IS CONSIDERED

County Commissioners and Poor Directors to Recommend Expenditure of $50,000 for Improvements—Plans Suggested

In joint session Thursday at the county home at Arden the county commissioners and the poor directors decided that the erection of a $50,000 addition to the county home to relieve crowded conditions there be recommended probably to the February grand jury.

The addition if built will take the place of the original county home, erected in 1830 and now the rear wing of the present structure. The new wing proposed will be 160x40 feet, three stories high and will have a finished basement.

The commissioners and poor directors also decided to ask for the money to erect two tuberculosis pavilions, one for men and one for women, the combined cost not to exceed $800. These it is proposed, will be built near the county home and used for the housing of tubercular inmates. Architect Crooke of Pittsburgh will meet with the commissioners Monday morning to go over the plans for the proposed additions to the county home.

Some radical steps to relieve the congestion at Arden are needed. At the present time there is room for only 150 inmates at the home, while from 240 to 250 are accommodated, sleeping some of them four in a room. Moreover, there are no hospital facilities.

To pay for the improvements planned the most favorable suggestion was that an increase in the millage of 2-5 of a mill should be made. The bonded indebtedness of the county now, it is felt, is so great that an added burden would not be desirable and the larger millage plan met with greater favor.

LARGEST BIBLE SCHOOL CLASS STARTS BOOSTING

Baraca Class of First Christian Church Has Get-Together Party—Rev. E. A. Cole of Pittsburgh is Chief Speaker of Occasion.

About 80 men attended an Old Time Stag Party that was in the nature of a booster meeting of the members of the Baraca class of the First Christian church Thursday evening. The purpose was to create interest and enthusiasm in Bible school work among men.

The speaker of the evening was Rev. E. A. Cole of Pittsburgh, who spoke on "Men in the Bible School." An interesting program was carried out consisting of selections by the Baraca Booster quartet, a talk on "How to Win Men" by Rev. E. N. Duty, piano solo by James Bowers, a talk on "How to Hold Men" by W. E. McFall, a talk by T. J. Allen on "What the Class Would be if Every Member Were Like Me," and a talk by J. D. Beryman on "Sociability."

The class is one of the largest in Charleroi as well as along the Monongahela, having an enrollment of 115 men. Its growth has been steady and at the present time the class is twice the size it was six months ago.

The meeting of Thursday night is one of a series to be held during the coming year. Upon the conclusion of the program a lunch was served by the committee in charge and a social hour spent.

Following were officers elected for the ensuing year: Teacher, Rev. E. N. Duty; assistant teacher, J. M. Whitlatch; president, J. D. Beryman; vice president, W. R. Pearce; secretary, Carl Corwin; treasurer, Thomas Reed.

Chief Parnicott will assume his new duties at once. He is an experienced man and his choice is regarded as a wise one.

J. Gibson and Jacob Jones were named as patrolmen. Robert Craig is special and ordinance officer. W. H. Stewart is the janitor and turnkey of the new city building. The city treasurer is A. R. COLLAPSE OF MARKET FEARED

Coal Trade Seriously Hampered by Latest Tie-up in Eastern Traffic

BALTIMORE ONLY OPEN PORT

The most sweeping embargo that has yet been placed against the east-bound coal movement has just gone into effect. Every Atlantic Coast port is closed to coal traffic with the exception of Curtis Bay, Baltimore, and Jackson street, Philadelphia, and it is said that a handful of cars would close the latter point.

The announcement of the embargo has brought to a sudden halt the upward movement of the coal market for western Pennsylvania and the Fairmont district, while Pittsburgh and No. 8 district mines, which were also taking advantage of the boom to enter a market in which they seldom compete, are also affected.

Coal operators admit that the situation is so serious that it may cause a collapse of the entire market, east and west. The ultimate effect depends entirely upon the action of the individual operators within the next few days. Should they divert a large tonnage to the western market, which has only recently been firming up as a result of the withdrawal of certain coals, it is probable that prices will collapse, perhaps to levels below those prevailing three or four months ago.

The fact that Baltimore remains an open port is of little interest to operators who have been shipping to New York and Philadelphia. Coal is being loaded for export at Baltimore, but very little coastwise tonnage is being taken on there. The embargo does not release any vessels, because

Boards of Two Counties Hold Joint Conference Today at Steel Town

REPAIR BILLS RUNNING HIGH

Average About $100 Per Month—New Cresote Block Block Floor Proposed Similar to That of the Charleroi-Monessen Bridge.

Washington and Westmoreland county commissioners today held a joint meeting and conference at Donora in regard to the matter of improvement of the Donora bridge by relaying the flooring. The meeting was at 11 o'clock and the matter was gone over thoroughly by the two boards. A new cresote block flooring is proposed similar to that of the Charleroi-Monessen bridge at North Charleroi.

From this county President John O. Watson and Commissioners A. P. Barnum and Thomas Hill of the board were present, with their engineer. Two of the Westmoreland board were on hand, Berkey C. Boyd and George Deeds.

The Donora bridge has been costing $100 a month to keep in repair, and it is to do away with this waste that the county officials met.

Though the cresote blocks are proposed for the ultimate improvement of the bridge, they will not be laid at once owing to the great cost. Westmoreland county commissioners explained that their county was about out of money. For the time being a caretaker will be employed and such lumber will be purchased as needed for re-flooring. The Donora bridge connects Donora in Washington county with Webster in Westmoreland. Over it are laid street car tracks, but they are not in use.

FEWER FIRES.

We are learning, after all, not to burn things up. According to statistics printed by the Insurance Press, our national fire losses last year were about $40,000,000 less than the recent average.

We have been losing over $200,000,000 worth a year from fires. In 1914, according to the authority quoted, we burned $220,000,000 worth of buildings and personal property. The drop from that figure to $172,000,000 last year, maintains the Pennsylvania Spirit, is impressive.

We may not be able to maintain the pace, but the trend in fire losses is undeniably downward. The fire-prevention propaganda of the last few years is having its effect.

Our people, always careless about fire, are slowly learning caution and adopting preventive measures. Fire departments steadily grow more efficient. Factories and stores install better safety apparatus. And there has been immense improvement in building. The tendency seems absolutely fireproof, to insist on giving the flames as little as possible to feed on. Concrete construction plays an even more prominent part.

While it is far more difficult to make private houses anywhere near fireproof, greater precautions are taken in our homes than ever before. More attention is given to safeguarding chimneys, stoves, lamps, etc. Matches are used less carelessly—or, still better, are not used at all. And yet, our fire losses are still many times as great per capita as those of any other country in the world.

THE HOSPITAL AUXILIARY.

Charleoi can feel proud of such an organization as the Charleoi Monessen Hospital Auxiliary. The women who are members of this organization have worked hard and nobly in the interests of the hospital, and their efforts have been crowned already with success. For an organization to raise the sum they did, $1,445, in a nine months period, considering that the work is just in its inception, it is little short of wonderful.

It is work of this nature that means the most. To be truly successful a hospital must have state aid, and this it cannot secure if the people in the community where it is located indicate an unwillingness to subscribe or interest themselves in the work of the institution. The state in the past has followed out the theory and idea of helping those who help themselves and of declining to assist those who will not.

As ever hospital affairs looked promising, they do now. When public sentiment is aroused and people are working unitedly in the right direction something is bound to be accomplished.

It isn't legal, the borough solicitor states, for the police department to make a man work instead of fining him, but an alternative sentence can be imposed. Probably one of the surest ways of ridding the community of the class known as bums is to set them to work. A tramp, if he is a consistent knight of the road, is never to be found actually seeking employment, consequently nothing will frighten him so much as a threat to put him to work. But the alternative sentence permits a man his own choice. He can either select work, such as is provided, or spend his time in solitary confinement for the given time. The sentence ought to be enforced, particularly at this time.

If a man holds down some little job "on the side" and receives as much salary as 15 cents per week, he is subject to the provisions of the insurance cause of the new compensation law. A choir singer who never does anything more dangerous in her work than attempt high C, and the church organist who is paid must be insured. The real effect of the new law is just beginning to be felt, but look where it is taking us. Some parts are so astonishing as to make us gasp, but they won't hurt. The more thorough a law seems the more likely it is to be a good one.

In a class fight that would seem silly if it wasn't tragical, a youth attending school at Philadelphia lost his life, being trampled under foot and crushed by a frenzied mob of youths who thought they were having a good time. They displayed wonderful class spirit, but they had to cut him home in a casket. That is the trouble with these class affairs. They barade too much of the hazardous. A compulsory safety first movement ought to be enforced when monstrous youths are allowed to play.

Generally speaking the newly selected combine of the Pittsburgh Coal company and the Monongahela River Consolidated Coal and Coke company will mean little, since for all practical purposes they have been as one for a long time. However the new plan of management will bring both companies under one head, and serve the interests of the combine by strengthening the resources, and by improving the mining facilities.

PICKED UP IN PASSING

Two boys stood the other day and gazed while an enormous safe was being raised to the top story of a high building.

The boys watched the safe rise slowly, dangling at the end of its wire rope, and when it reached nearly to the top the older lad turned away in disgust.

"Come on, Joe," he said. "We might as well move on. They ain't a-goin' to let her drop."

A professor of an educational institution was examining some students in hygienic science. "The great city agglomerations vitiate the atmosphere," he said. "Morbiferous germs, escaping from inhabited interiors, contaminate the air round about. In the country, however, the atmosphere remains pure. Why is that, Jones?"

"Because," said Jones, the people in the country never open their windows."

"Look here, Mary," said the husband angrily. "I shall be late at the office again. It is 8:30 and not a sign of breakfast yet!"

So the lady of the house sought the kitchen, with the idea of reprimanding the new maid for being late in the morning.

"It mustn't happen again," she said firmly. "I suppose you overslept yourself?"

"You see, it's this way, ma'am," said the girl, in regretful tones. "I'm a slow sleeper and it takes me a long while to get a good night's rest!"

Electric Sparks

It's just like a girl to say, "I never did know nothing and I always will," but wonder what she means.

How will a dark-haired girl ever dye if peroxide becomes unobtainable?

It cost the President $2,739 to get married. What a reign of blessed singleness there would be if we all had to pay like that.

The funny part if it is that some people think the grip funny.

Flowers

Each morn he sent her violets,
Each eve he sent her roses.
That's what the fair young charmer gets
Before the man proposes.

But, after they are married and the honeymoon turns sour,
The only thing he sends home is
The luscious cauliflower.

In nearly every women's quarrel you find a man in the case.

Lung Trouble Yielded to This Medicine

If you are suffering with serious lung trouble, it will pay to fully investigate Eckman's Alternative, a remedy which has caused many recoveries. One follows—

5235 Girard Ave., Phila., Pa. "Gentlemen—in the winter of 1903 I had an attack of Grippe, followed by Pneumonia, and later by Lung Trouble. In the winter of 1904 I had a cough, night sweats, fever and raised quantities of awful-looking stuff, and later I had many hemorrhages at one time three in three successive days. Three physicians treated me. I was ordered to the mountains, but did not go. Eckman's Alternative was recommended by a friend. After taking a small quantity I had the first quiet night's sleep for weeks. My improvement was marked from the first. I gained strength and weight and appetite. I never had another hemorrhage and my cough gradually subsided until entirely gone. I am perfectly well." (Abbreviated.) ANNIE F. LOUGHRAN. Eckman's Alternative is most efficacious in bronchial catarrh and severe throat and lung affections and up-building the system. Contains no harmful or habit-forming drugs. Accept no substitute. AMONG THE THEATRES

MAJESTIC—CHARLEROI

Some of the greatest film plays ever shown at the Majestic were featured there this week, beginning on Monday with "The Sins of Society." Robert Warwick was starred in this remarkable drama and was supported by a strong cast that brought out in a wonderful manner the strong parts of the play. On Tuesday the headliner play was "The Great Divide," taken from the book and the stage success of the same name. Scenes were laid in Colorado and camera work was of the best. On Wednesday Audrey Munson, who has gained much note as a model and who has made a hit on the stage in New York city was seen on Wednesday in the unusual production "Inspiration." Miss Munson was given ample opportunity for a display of her ability in a moving picture role of a new sort. "Evidence" was the big Thursday picture production, with Beverly Bayne and E. H. Calvert and an all-star cast featured. During the week the new serial, "The Girl and the Game" was started. The managers of the Majestic are announcing a great program for the coming week.

PALACE—CHARLEROI

The best obtainable for the local vaudeville house is being presented this week at the Palace theatre, where large crowds have been entertained nightly. The bill the first part of the week was made up of three splendid acts. The King and Queen of Clubs, with the little joker manipulator was an act of merit. Duke O'Brien entertained royally with his impersonation of famous characters. Zeidler and Zeidler appeared as song and dance artists. Their eccentricities in their act won for them unusual attention. The latter part of this week a splendid program is being presented. In a singing and dancing act of a nature that has not appeared at the Palace for weeks or months the Five Dunbars have an attractive performance. Billy Sharrat is appearing as a singer and ventriloquist, and Kid Carson is featuring his sensational novelty act. Sharrat as a ventriloquist is among the leaders in his profession. Carson's act is extraordinary, being a contortionist stunt. All the moving picture productions of the week have been meritorious.

COYLE—CHARLEROI

Victor Moore appeared on Tuesday of this week in "Chimmie Fadden Out West," one of the famous "Chimmie Fadden" pictures. The drama was a good one, with an exciting climax. It showed where Chimmie Fadden was hired as a trusted man to find a gold mine which didn't exist and where in the end he proved too honest to allow others to suffer. Other great films were shown this week by Manager Coyle. "House of Tears" with Emily Stevens and Henry Bergman was one of them on Wednesday and on Thursday Dustin Farnum was starred in the production of "The Gentleman From Indiana," a truly great drama. The Friday attraction at the Coyle is "The Nature Man," a most unusual production. For next week Manager Coyle is announcing an unusually attractive program. On Monday he will have Theda Bara in "Destruction," a Fox labor drama. Marguerite Clark will appear in the Paramount release "The Pauper and the Prince" on Tuesday and on Wednesday the leading production will be Marguerite Snow in the famous stage success, "Rosemary."

NEW DAVIS—PITTSBURG

In the New Davis theatre next week, beginning Monday matinee, January 17 and afterwards and evenings thereafter for six consecutive days, Desiree Lubowska, the impressionistic character dancer, who has raised a sensational furore in New York and Washington society this season, will make her Pittsburgh debut. Surrounded by a group of nine of the highest grade, refined Keith vaudeville acts, Lubowska will represent in the moods of Terpsichore some fantastic futuristic ideas, reproduce a sacerdotal dance of the ancient Egyptians and describe the soul of femininity. Lubowska is nothing if not daring and daring in the sense that she is entirely original. Supplemental to this stellar attraction, Mr. Davis will present "Petticoats," as played by Grace Dunbar Nile and a company of five. Bob Matthews and Al Shayne and company will appear in their little imagery story in three scenes entitled "Dreamland."

Frank Orth, formerly of the teams of Orth and Fern and Mack and Orth, has formed a partnership with William J. Dooley, principal comedian in "School Days," and will present a new comedy sketch entitled "A Food Detective." Augusta Glose, the original pianologue girl, will give character impersonations as her fingers ripple merrily over the ivories. The Imperial Jiu Jitsu troupe of seven Japanese self-defenders, will illustrate the manner in which the little yellow men ward off attack. George McKay and Otis Arline will present "On Broadway," a singing, dancing and chatter comedy. Ketcham and Chetum will present an original novelty. The Clown Seal, a mammal with a human brain, will show how thoroughly it has been trained. Special moving pictures selected for the Davis Theatre will conclude the performance.

ALVIN—PITTSBURG

"Two is Company," the latest musical product from the triangular authorship of Paul Herve, Jean Briquet and Adolph Phillips. The action of the piece takes place in the suburb of Paris partly at the country home of Baron H'Heurville and partly at the summer home of Lulu La Grange, a well-known actress. The story deals principally with a case of mistaken identity, which is instrumental in arousing a jealous feeling between the baron and his wife, who finally determines to seek evidence for divorce grounds. Their efforts to obtain proper evidence against each other introduces two clever detectives, who, during the greater part of the play, are responsible for the variously complicated humorous situations.

GOVERNMENT RECORDS DEED FOR MONESSEN PURCHASE

Fist Real Business Toward Erection Of Monessen Federal Edifice is Matter of Record.

The first real business toward the erection of a Federal building at Monessen is now a matter of record. A site on Seventh street and Donner avenue has been turned over to the government and deeds placed on record at Greensburg. J. Howard Kelly held the titles for the six properties transferred. The consideration was $21,475, it being made December 27, 1915. An attractive feature in the writing is that the United States of America has "successors and assigns."

Some Progress, Anyway.

There are still many discouragements and setbacks along the path of progress, but our memory goes back to the time when frequently one of the chief worries of a campaign manager was how to keep the candidate sober.—Columbus (Ohio) Journal

COUNTY OFFICIALS ENJOY AN EVENING'S OUTING IN CITY

County House Folk Take Dinner at Pittsburg Hotel And Then Attend Pittsburg Show.

Twenty-four county officials and clerks, former county officials and newspaper men last night cavorted and frolicked in Pittsburgh, dining at the Lincoln hotel and afterwards attending a theatrical production of the variety that is supposed to soothe and rest the tired business man. GETTING HUSBAND BY MAIL DOES NOT INCLUDE PROPERTY DONATION

At Least This is Opinion of Syracuse Woman Who Starts Separation Suit Against Monongahela Man.

Wooded and won by a four-year courtship by mail Mrs. William Morgan, aged 60 of Syracuse, N. Y. Thursday started a separation suit against her husband who has returned to Monongahela after a year's experience with married life. She charges her husband with threatening her life and declares he never supported her.

Mrs. Morgan a widow, met Morgan four years ago when he was visiting in Brewerton, N. Y. where she lives. After four years' courtship by mail they were married at Chippewa, Canada. For a year they lived at Brewerton and then troubles arose over financial matters.

Mrs. Morgan owned considerable real estate and she says her husband insisted on equal property rights, which he said was the Pennsylvania law. She objected and two weeks ago he returned to Monongahela. She says in her suit that before going he flourished a revolver in her face and threatened to kill her, when he found she would not let him have control of her business matters.

FOR BRONCHITIS, SEVERE COUGHS COLDS AND WHOOPING COUGH

Make the Best Medicine at Home—128 Teaspoonful for 50 Cents

Money spent for the old style ready-made medicine usually sold in bottles holding only 2 to 2½ ounces (16 to 20 teaspoonful) is largely wasted, because most of them are composed principally of sugar and water. Yet you have to pay the same price as if it were all medicine. Stop wasting this money. You can make a better remedy for bronchial affections, at home at one-fifth the cost. Merely go to Piper's pharmacy and ask for 2 ounces (50c worth) of Schiffman's New Concentrated Expectorant, which they guarantee will give perfect satisfaction or money will be refunded. Mix this with one pint of granulated sugar and one-half pint of boiling water, which makes a full pint (128 teaspoonful.) This new, simple, pleasant remedy is guaranteed to relieve the worst cough or cold, Bronchial Asthma, Bronchitis, Croup, Hoarseness and Whooping Cough. One bottle will make enough home-made medicine to probably last the whole family the entire winter. Children like it, it is so pleasant to take. It is unlike any other medicine, and positively contains no chloroform, opium, morphine or other narcotics, as do most cough mixtures. Keep it on hand in case of emergency and stop each cough before it gets a firm hold. The above druggist, in fact any druggist in this city, will return the money (just the same as is done with Schiffman's famous Asthmador) in every single case where it does not give perfect satisfaction or is not found the best remedy ever used. Absolutely no risk is run in buying this remedy—under this positive guarantee.

WOMAN HELD

est feeling. "I want him," meaning her husband, was all that she could say for several minutes. Later with more composure, she said, "I want to tell that jury just how it all happened," declaring that she did not shoot her husband.

The same jury heard the evidence in the inquest into the murder of Joseph Damaeno that occurred on West Chestnut street, Washington on the morning of December 13 when he was shot several times by Frank Caruso. George W. Clutter was the principal witness. He testified to seeing Caruso fire the fatal shots and that he knocked him down and leaped upon him to secure his revolver. As he tried to secure the weapon, which dropped from Caruso's hand, the man slipped away and started to run. The witness started after him when another man grabbed the fugitive. The jury recommended that Caruso be held.

Practically the same jury served as the inquest before the coroner into the murder of Rodolfo Zaccanni, whose lifeless body was found in Washington on Saturday afternoon, December 11, 1915, with his body and head bruised and mangled.

The verdict rendered was that Zaccanni came to his death from stab wounds inflicted by some sharp instrument in the hands of some person or persons unknown.
